

Mary Grace Campos

Assistant Director

As Assistant Director for Advising in Multicultural Programs and Services (MPS), Mary Grace Campos's primary responsibility involves providing advisement to the Asian American Student Union (AASU), Black Student Alliance (BSA), Latino Association of Student Organizations (LASO), the Lesbian, Gay, Bisexual and Transgender Alliance (LGBTQA), and other student organizations that are engaged in cultural programming.

Prior to her position with MPS, Mary Grace served as program coordinator for the Women's Center at Virginia Tech where she designed, implemented and evaluated Women's Center programs and coordinated Women's Month activities. Before that, she was the Student Success Programs coordinator in Virginia Tech's Provost's Office, recruitment coordinator for the vice president for Student Affairs, and Access Program advisor and team leader for the Tidewater Scholarship Foundation in Norfolk.

Mary Grace is a member of the American College Personnel Association, National Association of Student Personnel Administrators and the National Association of Campus Activities. She earned a bachelor's degree in Linguistics from the College of William and Mary and a master's degree in Educational Leadership and Policy Studies from Virginia Tech.